

PACE presents...

About Our Speaker:

- Director, Aurora Scholars Program for Gifted and Talented Youth sponsored by the Packer Foundation at Aurora University
- Aurora University Adjunct Faculty Member
- Doctoral research: Characteristics of Gifted girls successful in math & science

“Engaging the Mind”

- What brain research can tell us about the gifted mind.
- What research can tell us about gifted girls in math/science.

Dr. Ann Butcher

Thursday, January 11, 2007

7 pm @ East View Elementary School
Learning Center

4209 Route 71, Oswego, Phone: (630) 636-2800

Parents, Teachers, Administrators & Community members Welcome

About Our Organization...

PACE is a voluntary organization dedicated to the support and expansion of programs for academically talented students throughout District 308. Membership is open to all parents, teachers, administrators and community members with an interest in academic excellence throughout the District.

Contact Renita Miller at ozwego@ameritech.net to receive email from PACE or visit our website at www.pace308.org.